AIM AND SCOPE

This periodical is intended to serve the ever growing scholarly interest of linguists, psycholinguists, and philosophers of language of divergent persuasions in the history of linguistic thought.

Central objectives of HL are the discussion of the epistemological and methodological foundations of a historiography of the discipline and the critical presentation of particular areas or aspects of actual or potential research.

HL is published in 3 issues per year of ca. 400 pages altogether. Each issue contains at least three major articles, one review article and/or a bibliography devoted to a particular topic, and many reviews, review notes and announcements of recent publications in the field.
